ATTENTION

I understand by claiming the dependents on my return that I am responsible to show proof of eligibility for each dependent claimed should the IRS want proof (School records, Medical records, Birth Certificate, Utility Bills, etc...). I am also agreeing that I have the right to claim these dependents per the guidelines of the IRS. These dependents lived with me the last half the year, and I supported them with a place to live, clothing, food, etc... I submit that all information on this for is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
